

Internet Explorer 6 and above

- 1. Select Internet Options from the Tools menu.
- 2. In Internet Options dialog box select the Security tab.
- 3. Click the Custom Level... button. The Security Settings dialog box will pop up.
- 4. Under Scripting category enable Active scripting.
- 5. Click OK twice to close out.
- 6. Click Refresh.

Mozilla 3.6.X and above

- 1. Select Options from the Tools Menu
- 2. Select Content tab
- 3. Make sure Enable JavaScript is checked

Google Chrome

- 1. Click the settings next to Address bar.
- 2. Click Settings.
- 3. Click on Show advanced settings...
- 4. Click on Content Settings under Privacy.
- 5. Check Allow all sites to run JavaScript (recommended) under Javascript.
- 6. Click OK.

Note: Instructions may vary with different browsers and operating systems. If you cannot locate the JavaScript settings, check the help topics for the browser being used.